

Exterior

A very elegant coupe able to change the concept of sport yacht, attracting the Buyer looking for strong emotions. Faithful to the philosophy of all our other hulls appreciated throughout the world, she is capable to run with extra ordinary performances: top speed in excess of 50 knots, cruising speed at 47 knots! The glass windshield melts together the roof also in glass giving the impression of being in the cockpit of an air fighter. Very aggressive and sporty look which hides the comfort of a much bigger yacht in the living spaces.

Main Deck

A glass door completely disappears, joining the cockpit to the saloon and creating a single vast environment. When the glass door is closed, an integrated sliding door stands between the exterior and the interior. The large windowing and the roof that can be opened give the saloon light and an extraordinary feel of open space. A warm welcome is guaranteed with a mini bar, two comfortable sofas and a dining area.
